Major Murphy Worried After His Visit Here

Former Red Cross Head in France Makes Stirring Appeal

Asks Women to

"How Soon Are You Coming?" Is Question "Over There," He Says

tive mission to a greater, Major Grayson M. P. Murphy, late director of the and cities wrecked by the Germans. American Red Cross in France, paused yesterday to issue a ringing war call to the people of America above all, to the others, t women of America. Major Murphy will nection w soon join the American forces abroad as an officer under General Pershing.

"A few days ago," he told an audi-ence that packed the Waldorf-Astoria "Ars. Sartoris announced at the Hotel Vanderbilt yesterday that to beballroom to capacity, "I returned to gin the active drive for benefit performance you shoulders straightened tersely-"has counting on us, and if there is any bad

"You women are the greatest power in this country in this war, and this is the war of every one of you. It is as the war of the United States over here as it is in France, and every one hughest the war of the United States over here as it is in France, and every one hughest the war of the United States over here as it is in France, and every one here as it is in France, and every one of you has as much active interest in it as if we were an old and savage tribe and our village were surrounded by an enemy, and some of our tribe were spiking the enemy with spears at the walls and others were making spears and arrows to be carried to the front.

Would Mean the Finish If the enemy gets into the village

we are done,
"And now let me tell you something about men. Men are all right up to a certain point, but you will seldom get a man to criticise another man. But young are not that way. And if there is one thing I would like to feel sure would happen in this country it is that our women would make up their minds that this is their war and that they were going to see that the men to hold the positions to run the war administer their duties properly or get out."

of the New England branch of the Red Cross; Cornelius Bliss, jr., and the Rev. Allan MacRossic, pastor of St. Andrew's Methodist Episcopal Church, West Seventy-sixth Street. Mrs. Davison and her son E. Touk-

West Seventy-sixth Street.

Mrs. Davison and her son, F. Trubce Davison, recently injured in an aviation accident on Long Island, occupied one box, Major Murphy's family was in the other. Mrs. Leonard Wood, Mrs. E. H. Harriman, Mrs. Cornelius Bliss, jr., Mrs. Cleveland Dodge, Mrs. D. E. Pomeroy, Mrs. Robert Bacon, Mrs. Bayard Cutting, Mrs. John Pratt, Mrs. Willard Straight and many other women prominent in war relief work were in the audience of 1,800 that attended the celebration.

Mrs. Sartoris Here To Aid French Towns

Speed Up America Gen. Grant's Kin Seeks Funds For Devastated Land-Two Concerts Planned

General Ulysses S. Grant's granddaughter-in-law, Mrs. Algernon Sar toris, herself a French woman, has returned to this country after a tour of the devastated area in France bear-

Harold Content Quits U. S. Attorney's Staff

Prosecutor of Berkman and Emma Goldman Resigns After Altercation

Harold A. Content, since 1913 an Assistant United States District Attor-ncy, has resigned his position. The request for his resignation followed an altercation with another member of the Federal prosecutor's staff.

Oh, Man!

Quaker Teacher Will Be Tried on Disloyalty Charge

Miss McDowell Refused to Sign Pledge; Suspended Pending Hearing

Board Fight Expected

Member Declares U. S. Ex- gate ajar, in mid-Broadway on Tucsemption of "Friends" Should Be Universal

Did Flo, Conductress, Faint Away? Oh, Well, She's Back at Work Today

"I Only Had a Dizzy Spell, and Things Grew Dark and Then I Fell; Thursday Sure, Without a Slip, I'll Ring Up Fares Along the Trip" sinted in her car, and left the safety a

The control of the co

Bomb Plotter Sorry a U-Boat Sank Lusitania

By BRIGGS

Now Insane, He Planted Explosives on Liner, Tunney Tells Jury

gladdened by the news that the Lusi-

Hudson Tube Blocked

Downtown Traffic Tied Up by Short Circuit

Downtown traffic in the Hudson tube vas delayed more than an hour last right by a short circuit at Nineteenth Street and Sixth Avenue. The accident filled the tube with smoke. A traffic train which caused the accident, to the Twenty-third Street station.

As the passengers groped their way through the dense smoke a shower of sparks fell about them, and it was with difficulty, the police say, that they were testrained from making a break for the station alone. Uptown trains kept running and at 9:15 o'clock, a little more than an hour after the accident occurred, the schedule was resumed.

Acts After Charges by Gompers and Other Labor Leaders

Labor Leaders

Pacifist Unions

Favored Mar

Drive Pacifist From Town

Mitchell, S. D., Men Ordered Peace Advocate Away

MITCHELL, S. D., Jan. 23 .- William C. Rempfer, executive secretary of the South Dakota branch of the People's Council of America for Democracy and

Army Lieutenant Overstays Leave; Ends Life in Hotel

C. P. McMichael Shoots Himself After Talk With Intelligence Officer

shot himself in the head in his room at the Hotel Claridge, Broadway and verstayed his furlough is the only reason either the police or the military tenant McMichael used a regulation

Court of Common Pleas, Philadelphia. His family is one of the oldest in that city, his grandfather being the late

Baker Forces Army Clothing Board to Quit

Favored, Was Claim

Woman Member Said to Have Publicly Opposed the Draft

s, a subsidiary of the Federation, say Side of New York; has been favored by United Workers loyal unionists were being discrimin ermed "the American Bolsheveki," t board was charged with holding up t supply of uniforms through this poll suffering and sickness from exposure

No Charge Against Kruese

Judge Charles B. McMichael, of the